

Letters to Worldnet Grace Ministries

July & August 2011

I have received such a blessing from your messages over the years.

Now you've added a new dimension with the "History" series.

And now the presentations on Socrates and Plato are outstanding.

{History of the World #s 31 & 32}

These were just famous names to me

but I never had any real interest in learning about them.

What a fascinating way for me to learn about them in a way that reveals God's hand on them!

Duluth, Minnesota

Professor, your messages have blessed me so much.

The lesson on Socrates was awe inspiring -- and obviously inspired.

{History of the World #31}

Grand Rapids, Michigan

The History lessons are so great I can hardly wait for new ones to appear!

{"History of the World" series"}

San Francisco, California

Thank God I finally have a source of Biblical truth I can pass on to unbelievers.

They all love your presentations.

The humor is very appealing.

San Juan Capistrano, California

How marvelous to get my first understanding of Plato from the Biblical perspective!

{History of the World #32}

Very uplifting. I've listened to it 3 times.

Chicago, Illinois

I have enjoyed so much the History lessons. {"History of the World" series}

Every week something new and exciting.

Vancouver, Canada

Thank you so much for the lesson on the Greek language.

{History of the World #34}

I hope you do more of these. { See "The Bible – Origin & Transmission" series }

Trenton, NJ

Thank you for presenting the History messages. {"History of the World" series}

I've never heard anything like this.

Quebec, Canada

As a Professor of Philosophy I've often asked myself

what I would do if I were to present Plato in one lesson.

Now I know. {History of the World #32}

What a wonderful presentation which distilled all of the Platonic essentials into one presentation.

The Biblical assimilation was fascinating as I know basically nothing about the book.

Likewise the Socrates study. {History of the World #31}

Extremely interesting, especially considering that I've studied him for decades.

I look forward to further expositions.

I hope you will do a similar treatment of Aristotle. {History of World #33}

Lansing, Michigan

Dear beloved brother in Christ,

Grace to you and peace from our Lord Jesus Christ who by His incomparable mercy and grace has allowed me to pastor a small congregation in _____, Mali.

Now through His marvelous Providence He has directed me to your God inspired sermons. Oh, Brother, your words have struck hearts here in Mali.

Oh how thrilling to be able to demonstrate to my kinsmen that we have Africans have a calling from God. God knows us, God has gifted us so greatly and now He has gifted us by bringing you to our lives.

{History of the World # 5 & #20}

Hundreds in the city and villages have responded to you and have believed in Jesus as Savior. Most have forsaken their occult witchcraft and been born again.

May God continue to inspire your words

Mali, Africa

August 2011

What outstanding introductions to the great philosophers!

{History of the World # 31 – 33}

I would have never considered them from a religious perspective.

Extremely interesting

Des Moines, Iowa

I have enjoyed your History presentations. {"History of the World" series}

This is quite a novel approach to identify historical eras and develop a unifying thread.

The spiritual context is intriguing as well.

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

Thank you and may God bless you for your studies.

The Judgment Seat (sorry, "Blessing Place"!) has given me an entirely new perspective on the Christian life.

{"Bematos" -- The Blessing Place of Christ series}

This should be essential listening for every pastor.

Baton Rouge, LA

Your History series is so much better than the Teaching Company.

It does seem to me that they have started to copy some of your work!

Adelaide, South Australia

May God be praised and may you be blessed for your message of hope to the Africans!

{History of the World # 5 & 20}

Through you I was made aware of God's love for the Africans

and then by His infinite love and mercy I have renounced witchcraft and turned to Jesus my Saviour who has caused me to be born again!

Cameroon

These History studies are such a gift from God.

{“History of the World” series}

For the first time I have a Christian source to offer my friends in college and they enjoy it!

New York

Your entire site is a blessing. {RadicalGrace.com}

I have been a believer for over 50 years and keep asking

“Why have I never heard this before?”

Gresham, Oregon

This is the best resource for home school history I have ever found.

{“History of the World” series}

Thank you so much.

Portland, Maine

The studies on Joshua have been a wonderful blessing on so many levels.

{“Joshua” Series}

As a long time Christian, I’ve frankly found this book to be pretty much cut and dried.

“BE STRONG AND COURAGEOUS.”

Your study has opened the book up to me in a way that actually speaks to my life.

AND my husband, an indifferent unbeliever, actually is thoroughly enjoying the studies.

That is why I'm so thankful that you faithfully and clearly present the Gospel in every lesson

and normally many times throughout each lesson!

Providence, Rhode Island
