48. What's My Line? Mystery Hero

THE TRUE HERO WITH A THOUSAND FACES

"The True Hero with a Thousand Faces" is absolutely astonishing.

This teacher has in my opinion done a much better job of identifying the hero than Joseph Campbell.

I am going to listen again and pass it along to my colleagues.

Vienna, Austria

“The ‘True’ Hero with a Thousand Faces” is absolutely stunning.

To trace the story of the mysterious hero through fairy tales and movies was a monumental achievement - and then to identify him -

the pastor completed the work of Joseph Campbell.

If more religious teachers would teach like this we might listen.

I will certainly listen to this one.

Berlin, Germany

“The True Hero with a Thousand Faces” lesson is the most amazing study I have ever heard.

Amazing how everything points to Jesus!

Bursa, Turkey

Anyone familiar with the work of Joseph Campbell should listen carefully to the podcast entitled "The True Hero with a Thousand Faces".

Dr. Campbell's work was monumental but he never identified the hero.

This professor, in my opinion, has clearly identified the hero behind the myths as a real historical person.

He is a person whose name I know but not in this sense.

All of this is presented in a winsome, somewhat casual manner which is refreshing and engaging.

London, England

What do Little Red Riding Hood, Cinderella, Snow White, Hansel and Gretel, Pinocchio, King Arthur and Luke Skywalker have in common?

No matter what your religious persuasion,

I DARE YOU to listen to this sublime message to get the answer.

I guarantee you, you have never heard anything like this.

London, England

"The True Hero with a Thousand Faces" --

I have heard many religious broadcasts

but I've never heard anything like this.

The conclusion jarred me.

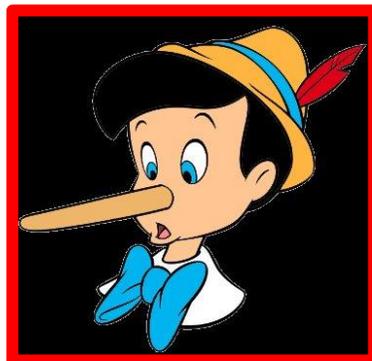

Amsterdam, The Netherlands

Amazing, absolutely amazing lesson on "The True Hero with a Thousand Faces"

So, I hear about Jesus through Pinocchio !

Bucharest, Romania

Joseph Campbell's The Hero with a Thousand Faces

was a monumental breakthrough

in anthropology and psychology.

However, his proposed identification of the hero was weak and unconvincing.

In this podcast, this Professor makes an overwhelming case that the hero is Jesus of Nazareth !!!!!

His references to fairy tales and Star Wars seemed absurd on the surface but I am totally convinced.

Frankfurt, Germany

“The True Hero with a Thousand Faces” presentation completed the work of Joseph Campbell.

This is the only religious podcast I have ever listened to in its entirety and it is the only one I have recommended to my colleagues.

Brussels, Belgium

The masterful presentation of “The ‘True’ Hero with a Thousand Faces” impressed me so greatly that I listened to “The Bible Origin” series.

I listened to all 12 of them and I am in awe.

Every Christian, or anyone who is interested in the Bible, or even linguistics needs to listen to these.

I assure you, you've never heard anything like this before.

The knowledge of Greek is extremely impressive.

The presenter (who is obviously remaining virtually anonymous) has a clear grasp of the subtleties and nuances of the language.

Thessaloniki, Greece

The Hero with a Thousand Faces is one of the most famous books of all time, but I doubt that many people have read all of it because his references are to classical works of antiquity which frankly we don't read anymore.

This professor made a brilliant move by taking Campbell's outline and inserting references to works of literature with which we are familiar – fairy tales and movies !

The presentation clearly revealed that Campbell's hero is none other than Jesus of Nazareth !!

I have re-evaluated my thinking about this man who is clearly an historical person.

Stockholm, Sweden

"The True Hero with a Thousand Faces"

O my goodness -- wonderful story.

Many trust {in Jesus as savior}.

China

Excellent and enjoyable "Thousand Faces" lesson.

I had never thought of Jesus as savior in this sense.

Panama

February 2019

The "Hero with a Thousand Faces" presentation is a masterpiece of scholarship.

The idea to take Campbell's outline and replace his outdated references with fairy tales and movies was a master stroke.

I always admired the work of Campbell but I was never content with his weak attempt at identifying the hero.

This study makes a forceful case for identifying the hero as the historical Jesus, whom I suspect is more than I thought.

Perth, Australia

Superbly presentation of Hero with Thousand Face.

So, it talks of Jesus.

Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam

" The True Hero with a Thousand Faces"

I love the stories -- the fairy tales and the meanings.

I was startled to see that every face is Jesus!

Tokyo, Japan

HUMAN GOVERNMENT:

And Pre-emptive Strikes AGAINST TERRORISTS

I heard a reference to this YouTube channel {RadicalGrace Bible Studies} on France 24 and began listening to the incredible emissions on borders nations and immigration.

Thank you for this eye opening information.

I am so content that they are being diffused.

Paris, France

Superb explanation of the importance of border control.

I am truly happy to see that many are listening.

I find the religious perspective actually interesting.

Versailles, France

I have heard so much about THE IMMIGRATION ISSUE that finally I found them {the "RadicalGrace Bible Studies" YouTube audios} and listened with great astonishment.

I AM AMAZED THAT THE AMERICAN MEDIA IS NOT PUBLICIZING THE ISSUE.

I then listened to the delightful story of

"The True Hero with a Thousand Faces".

I have considered myself to be a Christian but this makes me reconsider Jesus.

Paris, France

"The True Hero with a Thousand Faces" study jarred me.

Here is unequivocal evidence that Jesus of Nazareth was an historical person and a powerful case that He was divine.

Old Testament Stories #38

A Sheep recounts his Day with his Shepherd

Psalm 23: The Lord shepherds me.
He never fails me.

I've known the 23rd Psalm my whole life.

I always thought that it was beautiful.

However with the correct translation and the unveiling of the story of the sheep,

the passage has become alive to me.

I have already shared the lesson with several unbelieving friends.

They all found the telling of the story to be magnificent and made copies.

I am so grateful for the consistent clear Gospel presentation.

London, England

The 23rd Psalm has now become my favorite psalm.

I was fascinated by the discovery of the unfolding story.

This is the first time I have ever heard about Jesus as my savior after years of being a church member.

Seattle, Washington

The story of the Lord and the sheep thrilled me.

I have been in the church my entire life.

I felt that for the first time I know Jesus.

Barcelona, Spain

I have been deceived by many lying spirits.

This blessed story of the shepherd led me to Jesus.

With his rod and staff He chased them away.

Now only goodness and mercy go before me.

Kenya

I receive YouTube for first time and first YouTube I see is

"The Lord shepherds me. He will not fail me."

I listen so happily -- I never knew about Jesus, the shepherd.

He is my shepherd.

Riyadh, Saudi Arabia

Very superb presentations on border control.

It truly pleases me to see the strong response throughout the country.

Very interesting that the principles are explained in the Bible which I actually have never opened.

Passy, France

Of all people to come to our rescue,

my favorite French professor !!!

Bravo M le prof!

Paris, France

The presentation of the 23rd Psalm is a work of beauty.

I share with my friends who truly were moved.

I am so grateful for the Gospel message which you give without fail.

Unbelievers actually listen.

Our new group is enjoying "The True Hero with 1000 Faces" immensely.

Every story is extremely interesting and very well presented.

For that reason people actually listen.

Marvelous, beautiful story of the little sheep.

I want the good shepherd.

Now I know who He is.
