

2018-2019
LETTERS REFERENCING
“The Bible: Origin & Transmission”
series

March 2018

The Bible origin series is a masterpiece of scholarship.

As a teacher of the Septuagint I was fascinated by the depth of the knowledge of Greek.

The professor is able to grasp and articulate the nuances of the language as no one else.

I am beginning to enjoy the religious teaching as well.

Athens, Greece

October 2018

As soon as I began to listen to the Bible origin series I knew who the speaker was.

This professor has collaborated with some of the giants in the Greek New Testament scholarly community.

I appreciate the fact that he confines his presentations to information which is available to the general public.

I respect his decision to remain virtually anonymous.

Above all I appreciate that he faithfully presents the simple Gospel and total grace without wavering.

No wonder people are actually saved through this ministry.

Heraklion, Crete

January 2019

The masterful presentation of “The ‘True’ Hero with a Thousand Faces” impressed me so greatly that I listened to “The Bible Origin” series.

I listened to all 12 of them and I am in awe.

Every Christian, or anyone who is interested in the Bible, or even linguistics needs to listen to these.

I assure you, you've never heard anything like this before.

The knowledge of Greek is extremely impressive.

The presenter (who is obviously remaining virtually anonymous) has a clear grasp of the subtleties and nuances of the language.

Thessaloniki, Greece

April 2019

The powerful Kingdom messages led me to “The Bible -- Origin & Transmission” series.

I was ecstatic to find these.

I know who the speaker is.

He is the only person who could have presented these studies.

He is the only surviving member of the committee which produced the critical text of the New Testament.

Every Christian should listen to these lessons.

It may be difficult at first but the time spent will be well worth it for anyone who wants to know about the text of the New Testament and how to know what is in the text and -- what is not.

His knowledge of Greek is impressive and totally accurate.

Thessaloniki, Greece

Letters continue on the next page . . . .

May 2019

The excellent study of right vs. left led me to explore the site and to discover “The Bible – Origin & Transmission” series.

This is a monumental presentation.

When I listened to the Septuagint study I did not know who the speaker was but as soon as I began to listen to the New Testament section

I knew immediately who he was.

I will respect his obvious desire for anonymity.

I would however like to express my gratitude for this work which captures for posterity the work of the committees in establishing the New Testament text.

I realized that this professor is almost certainly the only person in the world who would have the contacts and the background to present this vital information.

Every believer needs to listen to this.

It is a difficult issue but he has presented it in the clearest possible way.

Keep listening and it will make sense.

This is an outstanding evangelist tool

because the Gospel is presented in astonishing clarity.

Vienna, Austria

