

Letters to Worldnet Grace Ministries

November & December 2014

I never write like this but I feel compelled.

I am a long haul trucker. A few weeks ago I had a long run from Norfolk to Sacramento.

My wife gave me an iPod with the "History of the World" lessons.

I didn't want to listen but I got tired of the radio so I plugged it in.

I was hooked off the bat.

It was so interesting. I kept listening basically nonstop.

By the time I got to Reno I was on number 42.

{Church of Sardis, Part 1 - Martin Luther & the Reformation -- Righteousness by Just Believing}

That's when I got it.

Jesus died for my sins and forgave me for all of them.

Then he wiped them out.

I kept listening but with deeper understanding.

I'm spreading the word all over the airwaves.

By the time I got home I had listened to all 80 (looks like 79).

Man do I know world history!

I can't thank you enough.

Norfolk, Virginia

Greetings! I am a professor of _____ at _____. I began listening to your studies at the urging of a colleague. I began with the lessons on early man.

{History of the World #s 1-11}

When I read your description of the anthropos and the pithecus fossils, then the Cro-Magnon and Neanderthal I was awestruck. You pointed out that the distribution of these fossils does not support the contention that homo sapiens evolved. In fact, you basically disproved evolution.

I began to change my mind about things I had held as facts.

I then explored your other studies and became a believer in Jesus Christ.

I have been in a quandary of how to present what I believe to my colleagues. The problem has been that I cannot recommend any Christian "science" sites because they are full of nonsense. I can proudly now recommend your site.

The lecture on Venus hit home with many here.

You brought out into the open a dilemma that no one wants to talk about -- the "wrong spin".

Some disparage your studies, some are neutral, some are positive. What they all have in common is that they are listening to you, to every message. I am writing to encourage you to keep doing what you're doing. You're making inroads in the intellectual community.

Thank you for introducing me to Jesus!

U.S.A.

Having been invited to the generated group with a purpose of invigorating.

Not aware of the context.

With pleasure I made the acquaintance of the person Jesus.

Now I feel certain of his presence. Thank to ya much.

"How false teaching comes into the church". Wow. You absolutely nailed it.

{2 Peter #5}

I have been so frustrated trying to assimilate "just believe" with "Make Him Lord of your life".

You angered a lot of people. You reassured me and brought me peace.

I love all the music. "Smiling Faces" was perfect.

Our family is very grateful for this website and we miss being there with you all! These bible studies keep us uplifted each week as we have so many folks asking us those hard life questions that can only inspire us to point to Jesus and then these lessons as back up!

This website will be helpful as we are preparing for speech in apologetics this year. I know my son is getting what he needs to know Jesus at a young age and be ready as an adult for God's purpose for his life! We keep you all in our prayers!

I am strongly encouraging everyone to listen to Lesson #5 in the 2 Peter series:

How False Teaching comes into the Church and into Believers' Lives

Beware: it will stir up a lot of anger.

Our pastor (well known) was presented with Pastor Tatum's studies on the bema seat of Christ a couple of years ago and, after initial resistance, he modified his teaching dramatically.

This teaching is excellent

Van Nuys, California

Grew up in Jersey. Never went to church.

Come to Sola Norway on a delivery.

Every evening they're playing these lessons after dinner.

They were so interesting I kept listening.

Two weeks ago I believed Jesus died for my sins.

So God flies me here for that. Hard to believe.

Currently in Sola, Norway

EXCELLENT Lesson on uniformitarianism.

FIRE AND RAIN: God's Supernatural Interventions in Cosmology and Human History

The false teaching of "uniformitarianism" {2 Peter #8}

I am one of the few believers on campus and I am thrilled to be able to refer colleagues to the website. These studies are amazingly well received and are a topic of many conversations.

I wondered how this one would play since some challenges were tossed out.

Surprisingly, although I've heard some disagreements, they seem to be entertaining the message.

I'm writing to encourage you in what you're doing. It is tremendous.

Thank you for the outstanding message on hell. I am glad that you mentioned what a stumbling block it is to people.

Thirteen Ways an Unbeliever prepares his Custom-made Hell

Churning up his own Torment, Setting his own Thermostat

{2 Peter #7}

I have had a very difficult time understanding how God could punish people forever with could punish people for ever with torment. Your analysis made perfect sense and brought me peace.

My elderly father, whom I suspect may be hardened actually listened and was visibly disturbed. That has to be good.

And as always you gave the simple Gospel. I have come to count on that!

Bravo for the lecture describing the transition from energy to matter at the singularity and what would happen if the strong force were to dissolve.

The false teaching of "uniformitarianism" {2 Peter #8}

The religious perspective was integrated skillfully, in an attractive, not condescending manner.

I've been perusing your site and the messages. Here's my take: yawn

Bart (No location posted)

Bart,

Thank you for taking the time to provide your insightful analysis.

Since you are apparently dozing off, you may want to check out Lesson #70 in the "History of the World" series.

Be sure to pay careful attention to the closing Bob Dylan song "When You Gonna Wake Up?"

The ultimate meltdown message may be the best ever.

All of these studies in quantum mechanics are flawlessly presented and fascinating to hear.

All of the lessons on quantum mechanics and cosmology are superb.

You are encountering some push back but also deep interest.

Thank you for these messages. They drew me to Jesus a few years ago.
Now they keep me focused on Him and not myself.

The new PowerPoint presentations are beautiful and enhance the powerful teaching.

These are very very nice and valuable

Greetings!

I have the privilege of translating your messages for several study groups in Finland. I am so pleased that you make these freely available and everyone is excited to learn of spiritual matters for the very first time.

The new slide presentations are a very great addition.

According to your study on "Searching For The King Of The Jews", you insist that the Magi came in a caravan. Do you have any scholarly proof of this?

You also insist that the magi rode on horses. Do you have any scholarly proof of this?

I eagerly await your response.

Thanks for writing. In the lesson I referenced Herodotus as my primary source. He is doubly valuable in that not only is he an unbiased secular historian, he also cites numerous ancient historians.

The following sources document both the cavalry and the numbers referred to in the lesson:

My husband and I are appreciative of your knowledge and understanding as well as your willingness to share it.

This Christmas, our gifts to friends and family are flash drives and mp3 players loaded with Radical Grace.

Thank you for your efforts, and Merry Christmas!

Hi Johnny and Connie,

I have a scripture that I am having a hard time placing in my "head".

James 3:1 seems to be saying that teachers will incur stricter judgement.

We have been taught that there is no judgement for those in Christ Jesus, Romans 8:1.

Judgement is God's strange work.

Just not sure how to sort through that scripture.

Thanks

Maine

Excerpt from Johnny's part of the response:

... James is explaining that in this life teachers get judged more than others.

The entire package is perfect. Great lessons, great interactions.

The handouts are very useful.

This teaching is excellent. Probably the best I've heard.

Actually it IS the best I've heard.

The PowerPoints are beautiful and the songs are perfect.

My brother recommended I would possibly like this website. He used to be totally right.

This submit truly made my day.

You really make it appear so easy with your presentation but I in finding this matter to be really one thing which I believe I might never understand. It kind of feels too complex and extremely huge for me. I am looking ahead on your next submit, I will try to get the cling of it!

Excellent lessons on how we received our Bible.

I have a doctoral degree from seminary and I assure you thus teaching is well beyond anything taught in any seminary.

I look forward to the continued studies.
