

Letters to Worldnet Grace Ministries

September & October 2017

Very remarkable presentation of Jesus of Nazareth.

Very unsettling but I admit I cannot help but to listen.

Thank you.

{The Life of Jesus – Learning to Listen}

Al Duwadimi, Saudi Arabia

Thank you for the very stirring presentations of the Christian holy books which are magnetic.

{The Bible – Origin and Transmission}

Mecca, Saudi Arabia

These lessons are tremendous.

I have been recommending them to everyone I know.

These are the only studies of the "New Testament" which keep me really riveted.

Jerusalem, Israel

The Bible origin and transmission series has reverberated throughout academic circles.

Nothing of this importance has been produced since the work of the parallel committees decades ago.

I know who the speaker is.

He is clearly remaining anonymous deliberately in order to bring to light the state of New Testament scholarship.

Budapest, Romania

Lia Xian is wonderful !

She has been born again.

Lia Xian trusted in Jesus !!!

Baoan, China

Greetings and best wishes to you.

Your messages are tremendous and I have learned so much.

At first they made me angry,

then sad,

now very happy because I believe this is true.

Al Hofuf, Saudi Arabia

Si le professeur envisageait de présenter une brève présentation évangélique en français et de l'afficher sur la première page, je la distribuerai à bon nombre de ses anciens élèves.

Ils ne décideront pas nécessairement de faire confiance à Jésus, mais ils écouteront certainement leur professeur!

J'ai été sauvé à cause de ses conseils sur la Bible alors qu'il enseignait la littérature.

Paris, France

Translation:

If the professor would consider posting a brief Gospel presentation in French and posting it on the front page,

I would distribute it to his many former students.

They would not necessarily decide to trust in Jesus,

but they will certainly listen to their professor!

I was saved as a result of his hints about the Bible as he was teaching literature.

THE RAPTURE:
Leaving the Shadows for Reality

Are we merely characters in a virtual reality game?

The speaker has incredibly grasped and clearly explained the new "disturbing" revelations about the world of quantum mechanics.

More remarkably, he has offered solutions which initially were not appealing because of the religious content.

However I admit that his explanations are the only ones I've heard which are plausible.

I have begun to explore the many studies on this site and find them to be very interesting.

Geneva, Switzerland

Every one of these sermons speak to my life.

The latest about the Rapture being an escape to reality touched me powerfully.

This teaching of grace, unmerited favor, is so lacking among Bible teachers.

This pastor is the only one who never ever lapses back into LEGALISM AND SELF-EFFORT.

I am sharing with everyone I know, including many radio ministries.

The marvelous lesson on waiting for Jesus in order to go home stirred me greatly.

Holy Spirit was working powerfully through these words.

I was so struck that I virtually browbeat 2 cousins (unsaved) to listen.

They were likewise struck.

Now they are formerly unsaved!

Share this with you friends and family. It is irresistible.

Perth, Western Australia

These messages are absolutely outstanding.

People here are enthralled with the “History of the World” lessons.

They love knowing that there is a God.

They quickly grasp the need of salvation and embrace Jesus as their substitute / savior.

It’s so wonderful that you do not charge for anything, nor do you even require that someone gives their email address.

(So many people here do not have money nor email addresses.)

There is not even a “Donate” section anywhere on the site.

Bless you and I pray that God will continue to provide your needs !!!!!

Hong Kong

I love every one of these messages.

Every message on every topic.

The last message posted on the benefits of living our lives waiting for Jesus impacted me deeply.

It was so powerful I could not help but pass it along to my friends.

God's Holy Spirit was speaking unmistakably through the teacher.

One friend trusted in Jesus and many others expressed a desire to know more.

Sydney, Australia

Praise the true God in heaven who rules over the creation and over me.

I praise God for opening heaven to me as I now trust with joy in Jesus, the only savior.

Kuwait

These talkings are blessingment!

The Bible origin and transmission series is outstanding.

I had followed the work of the Aland / Metzger committees and had become disheartened that their work could fade into oblivion.

This series has recaptured their scholarly work and rendered it comprehensible to the layperson.

For me the issue was that I grasped the validity of the New Testament.

More than anything else I grasped the message of the New Testament and embraced my Messiah Yeshua haNotzri.
