

Luke 7: 1 - 10 Jesus Heals the Centurion's Servant
Measuring Faith Weakens It (The Heisenberg Uncertainty Principle)

Luke 7: 1 When He had completed all His discourse in the hearing of the people, He went to Capernaum.

2 And a centurion's slave, who was ~~highly regarded~~ held in high esteem by him, was sick and ~~about to die~~ at the point of death {i.e. terminal}.

3 When he heard about Jesus, he sent some Jewish elders asking Him to come and save the life of his slave.

4-5 When they came to Jesus, they earnestly implored Him, saying, "He is worthy for You to grant this to him; for he loves our nation and it was he who built us our synagogue."

6 Now Jesus started on His way with them; and when He was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends, saying to Him, "Lord, do not trouble Yourself further, for I am not worthy for You to come under my roof;

7 for this reason I did not even consider myself worthy to come to You, but just say the word, and my servant will be healed.

8 "For I also am a man placed under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to this one, 'Go!' and he goes, and to another, 'Come!' and he comes, and to my slave, 'Do this!' and he does it."

9 Now when Jesus heard this, He ~~marveled~~ was astonished / amazed at him, and turned and said to the crowd that was following Him, "I say to you, not even in Israel have I found such great faith."

Matthew 8: 11 "I say to you that many will come from east and west {i.e. Gentiles}, and recline at the table with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven;

12 but the sons of the kingdom will be cast out into the outer darkness; in that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

10 When those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the slave in good health.

Hebrews 12:2 Fixing our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of faith. {i.e. the One who brings our faith to completion}

John 1:11 He came to His own, and those who were His own did not receive Him.

12 But as many as ~~received~~ accepted Him, to them He gave the ~~right~~ authority to become children of God, even to those who believe in His name

Romans 8:21 The creation itself also will be set free from its slavery to corruption into the freedom of the glory of the children of God.
