

Letters to Worldnet Grace Ministries

March 2011

After being badgered by my friends, I finally checked out your messages on world history. I was reluctant because frankly, who wants to hear another series of history lessons. I was expecting another "Blah Blah Blah." Then you stated that you would present history from the Biblical perspective. Again I thought, "Blah Blah Blah."

Then I kept listening. And listening. I have never heard anything like this. Now I have almost been obsessed with them. I can't stop listening.

Now three things have happened:

1 - History makes sense. There is indeed a purpose in history. God's hand is actively involved in the big and the small things of history.

2 - The Bible has come alive to me. Now I read the accounts of Shem, Ham and Japheth and the previously boring Genesis Chapter 10 with excitement because I understand it now.

3 - Because you consistently present the spiritual implications of history and the Bible, I see God's hand in my own life.

Thank you so much for doing this.

Columbus, Ohio

I cannot get enough of the history messages. I download them and listen over and over. Then I can't wait until you post a new one.

I don't know how it's possible but they keep getting better and better.

Pocatello, Idaho

Your world history sermons are such a blessing. I have not found anything remotely like this.

The lesson on Moses and Hatshepsut was so fascinating I will never look at the story again in the same way. I annotated my Bible with your notes and now the story, as well as Moses, and the Pharaoh's daughter comes alive to me.

{History of the World # 17}

Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada

I love these "History of the World" lessons. What is amazing is that I checked your historical references to the Habiru, Hyksos, the migration of the Semites, etc. and it was all accurate.

{History of the World # 17}

Then I checked your biblical references (easy because you provide the hand outs!) and it was all accurate.

No one has ever collated the information before! What a powerful work you've done. And what a powerful anointing by the Holy Spirit to enable you to see not only the connections but also to infuse every single one of your sermons with spiritual discernment and application. What a blessing to my life.

South Bend, Indiana

Your message on the alphabet was so powerful I can't express it. Amazing how I've taken the alphabet for granted. Now I know it was God's hand who directed the alphabet for His purposes -- as He does every event in history, and as He does in every area of my life.

{History of the World # 19}

I thank God that He has revealed these truths to you and I thank you for sharing these insights with us. And at no cost.

Glasgow, Scotland

Thank you so much for the history lessons and for how God is using them to bring His presence into the life of my family.

My husband has never had any interest in God or the Bible. And, with the dead sermons out there I can hardly blame him. I was listening one evening to your messages, furiously writing and saying, "Wow." "Unbelievable." "This all makes sense."

I had no intention of engaging him, but he started to be close by as I was listening. Then he asked me if I had bookmarked the site. Then he said that I could download the messages to my iPhone -- which he did for me. Then he began to download them to his mp3 player.

He had listened to some of the commercially available history lessons and enjoyed them to some degree. But he is hooked on your studies, especially when you focus on "minor" events and show their implications. After he heard your "all the world's a stage" message he began to openly say how much he was enjoying the series.

He even asked if there were any local preachers who would anywhere near as interesting. I told him that I had looked near and far and there was nothing like this, but who cares. We just keep listening to the series at home. That's all that matters.

Now he's branching out more. He has loved the Joshua lessons. And then he actually listened to the Judgment Seat lessons and found them "very interesting".

{ Joshua series; The Blessing Place of Christ series }

He is very intrigued that you don't charge anything or even ask us for our email address! PTL!

Virginia

Dear Pastor:

Your sermons are literally Holy Spirit driven and empowered.

You have done what no other preacher has ever consistently been able to do. With every lesson you speak to me. You speak into my life. Always.

Anonymous

Dearly Beloved Pastor John,

I bring you and the entire members of your Church greetings in the Name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ the Saviour of the World.

By the grace of God, I am the founder of _____ Church here in _____. And we have a mandate of reaching Souls with the Saving message of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ to the Souls in the Villages, and remote area where by the grace of Jesus, Souls are saved from the Kingdom of darkness.

By His mercy He has enabled me to penetrate into these villages, to the small tribes. However, I have never been able to establish any rapport with the highly educated cultured communities.

I am so happy to tell you, Pastor, that you have connected with these people. Prior to my sharing your messages into that culture I confess I did so with some trepidation because you straightforwardly describe the faults, weaknesses and errors of the Africans. However you also have forcefully argued for the design genius of the Hamitic peoples in a way which I have never heard, especially from a Caucasian. By God's mercy I was able to inject your messages into that culture.

{History of the World #s 4 - 8, 11}

They respect what you say as authoritative. They accept your description of the Hamitic errors because, as educated people, they are aware of them. They respond to you because of your powerful insistence that God has established the African races, gifted them, and given them a purpose.

It would be interesting for you to know that for years, these educated Africans have had an expectation that a "Pastor John" would come to them and teach them.

I am so blessed to report to you that Souls are leaving traditional worshipping of gods (Idolatry) and accepting the only saviour of the World our Lord Jesus Christ. It is a miracle that four educated witch doctors in two communities a month ago gave their lives to Christ. Please continue to join us in prayers so that more and more Souls will be won for the Lord.

And I am praying that God Almighty will provide for you so that you can come visiting us here in my Country.

Wining Souls Always For Christ,

Africa