

Letters to Worldnet Grace Ministries

October 2011

Outstanding presentations of World History!

What a refreshing new perspective to see God's hidden hand.

I wish history had been presented this way in school.

I'm actually getting a grasp of historical eras and remembering them!

Denver, Colorado

Hi Johnny,

I found your article "Blessing Seat of Christ" from the RITAN site and was impressed with your research and the positive outcome.

{The Blessing Place of Christ" series #1 – 3

Difficult Bible Passages" series #4 & # 5}

New York

Your teaching has literally saved my life. Literally.

I can't thank you enough.

St. Louis, Missouri

Yes, the phrase translated “ THE JUDGMENT SEAT OF CHRIST”

does not appear in the original Greek text.

“The Blessing Place of Christ” is a much more accurate translation.

We now have no fear as we look forward to meet Jesus in the air

AND to be rewarded for our deeds, whether good or of no value!

Why, because “bad” isn't allowed to be mention in heaven.

We are covered by the blood of Jesus.

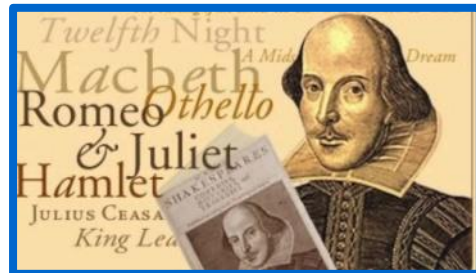

Sin is wiped away and left behind. No worries! No stress!

I cannot wait to be raptured!

Your treatment of Shakespeare is the first new analysis of him in decades.

{History of the World #45}

Arizona State University.

THANK YOU !!!!!!!

I have never heard such excellent teaching, which is saying something because I listen to all kinds of Christian teaching on the radio, but I have never heard anyone able to teach half as well as you.

It's your personality and education but I know it's not all you.

God's Holy Spirit is speaking straight through you.

London, England

We are a group of Roman Catholic men (we've written you before) who faithfully listen to your messages and continue to find them enjoyable.

We appreciate even your criticisms of the Catholic Church because you are fair and even handed with the Protestant errors.

We certainly disagree with some of what you say but we unanimously believe that you are guided by Holy Spirit.

Los Angeles, California

I loved your Shakespeare lesson! {History of the World #45}

I've never thought much about reading him because it seemed so dry.

With the perspective of the Gospel he now has come alive to me!

New Orleans, Louisiana

Thank you so much for your messages.

Even my husband and sons who have never had any interest at all are faithfully listening and enjoying them.

St. Paul, Minnesota

Every one of your messages speak directly and specifically to me and, remarkably, to specific issues in my life.

Carlsbad, New Mexico

I am so appreciative of your audio messages because I feel free to share them with my unbelieving friends at college.

They love them.

In fact we have a Thursday night session in our dorm study room which has grown to the point that we have 40 to 50 people in attendance every week.

Your insights into art, music and literature have been valuable for everyone – and they have been used in papers and presentations!

Also they have opened doors for stimulating conversations.

{ History of the World #s 44, 45, 46, 48, 50, 51, 52, 55 }

New Orleans, Louisiana

What a relief to know my little pets go to heaven!

The prospect of losing them forever had caused me so much pain.

{ The Rapture of the Church – Believers, Children, and Animals under Believers' Dominion #2 }

I love your teaching.

Big Rapids, Michigan

I wish someone had taught me to appreciate art the way you do.

And thanks for including the paintings with your annotations!

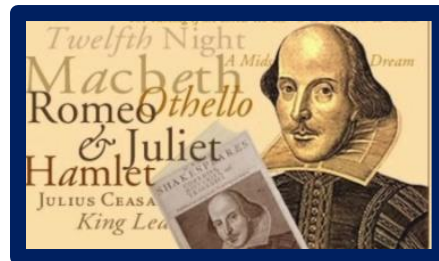

{ History of the World #s 44, 46, 48, 50, 51, 52, 55 }

New Rochelle, New York

History of the World" series - #44, #45, #48, 50 Light of the Gospel reflected in Renaissance Art, Literature, & Music

#44

#45

#48

#50

